Academy for Women in Academic Emergency Medicine

AWAEM Early Career Faculty Award

To honor early career female faculty who have shown promise for significant career achievements in emergency medicine through research, education, advocacy, or administration, and/or who have worked to promote the role of women in academic emergency medicine.

Eligibility:

1. Female EM physician
2. Faculty member in a U.S. academic EM department
3. Faculty member in her first 7 years of academic practice (finished residency or chief residency in 2009)
4. Current SAEM member

   Note: Any faculty nominee who took significant time away from academic medicine may be considered with an explanation of lapsed time. Please include letter of explanation of time lapse if greater than 8 years from date of residency completion.

Selection Criteria:

1. Evidence of achievements, innovation, and dedication in academic emergency medicine through education, research, advocacy, or administration.
2. Involvement on a national level (e.g., through SAEM committees, research consortiums, or advocacy groups).
3. Activities demonstrating commitment to advancing the role of women in academic emergency medicine.

Required Documentation:

1. Nominee's CV
2. Nomination Letter. Nomination Letter may be submitted by current or former colleagues, mentors, mentees or employers. Self-nominations are welcome and encouraged.
3. Letter of support from chair or mentor. If nominator is the chair then one letter addressing items 2 & 3 will suffice

Other supporting documentation, such as additional letters of support or recommendation is optional. These supplemental documents will be reviewed by the awards committee on a time-available basis. Submit all materials electronically to Christine Babcock at Babcock@uchicago.edu.
