

AWAEM Research Award

The Research Award recognizes a female faculty member whose outstanding efforts and achievements have promoted research and scholarly discovery in Emergency Medicine. Accomplishments of the winner of this award should have had significant impact on advancing knowledge about a focused area of Emergency Medicine. This award will be presented to an outstanding female clinical or basic science researcher.

Eligibility:

1. Female Emergency Medicine physician
2. Faculty in a U.S. academic Emergency Medicine department
3. Current SAEM member

Selection Criteria:

Nominees should have:

1. Demonstrated dedication to the promotion of Emergency Medicine through research and scholarly discovery.
2. Multiple publications and lectures on a focused area of Emergency Medicine.

Required Documentation:

1. Nominee's CV
2. Nomination letter explaining why the candidate merits the award. Nomination letter may be submitted by former or current colleagues, mentees, or employers. Self-nominations are welcome and encouraged.
3. Letter of recommendation from department chair or research director. If nominator is the chair or research director one letter addressing #2 & 3 may suffice.

Other supporting documentation, such as additional letters of support or recommendation is optional. These supplemental documents will be reviewed by the awards committee on a time-available basis. Submit all materials electronically to Christine Babcock at Babcock@uchicago.edu.

Deadline:

Feb. 15th, 2016 at 5:00pm EST