

2012 SAEM Ethics Curriculum

TABLE OF CONTENTS

REVIEW 6.11.12

Module	Section	Cases
Introduction
Module 1: The Physician-Patient Relationship	1.1: Competence, Beneficence and Compassion	1.1.1 Sinus pain-med seeking 1.1.2 Competence for central line; learner
	1.2: Confidentiality and Privacy	1.2.1 HIV disclosure
	1.3: Skillful Communication and Truthfulness	1.3.1 Terminal illness disclosure; family request not to inform 1.3.2 Medical error, potential risk from contaminated lidocaine
Module 2: Issues related to Patient Autonomy	2.1: Informed consent and refusal	2.1.1 HIV +, LP consent
	2.2: Patient decision making capacity	2.2.1 Homeless intoxicated patient refusing care
	2.3: Treatment of minors	2.3.1 Parent requesting drug testing of teen.
Module 3: End of Life Issues	3.1: Honoring Patient Preferences: ADs and DNR orders	3.1.1 Prehospital honoring of ? ADs 3.1.2 Patient with respiratory failure refusing intubation
	3.2: Futility	3.2.1 Nursing home patient with sepsis 3.2.2 Elderly patient with rupturing AAA
	3.3: Withdrawing and withholding	3.3.1 Undesired intubation prehospital
Module 4: Patient Communication Skills	4.1: Delivering Bad News	4.1.1 Request by family not to tell patient 4.1.2 New diagnosis of leukemia in child 4.1.3 Phone notification of trauma death 4.1.4 Notifying trauma victim of wife's death and last minutes
	4.2: Establishing Goals of Care	4.2.1 Dementia patient with new pneumonia
	4.3: Difficult Patient Situations	4.3.1 Obese patient who frustrates providers 4.3.2 Sickie Cell patient with "too many" visits. 4.3.3 Patient requesting inappropriate tests
Module 5: Interpersonal Relationships	5.1: Colleague Interactions	5.1.1 Consultant refusing to allow pain meds 5.1.2 Overworked nurse having difficulty prioritizing chest pain patient
	5.2: Interpersonal conflicts	5.2.1 Chronic abdominal pain demanding "answer" 5.2.2 Nurse/resident debate about chronic pain and possible "drug seeker". 5.2.3 Romantic involvement between faculty and intern
Module 6: Professionalism Challenges in the Education Setting	6.1: Student supervision and autonomy	6.1.1 Student getting work-up started on busy shift. 6.1.2 Student/resident discharge of patient prior to attending evaluation.
	6.2: Procedures on the Newly Dead	6.2.1 Arrested patient with resident request to float pacer for procedure chance.
	6.3: Mentoring Ethics	6.3.1 3 rd year medical student contemplating EM – how to mentor?
Module 7: Understanding Ethical Principles		7.1.1 Question of career advancement vs. family 7.1.2 Choosing between safety and environment in buying car 7.1.3 Truth-telling vs. loyalty towards friend
Module 8: Professional responsibilities	8.1: Codes of Ethics	Questions about ACEP Code 8.1.1 Intoxicated patient request for confidentiality 8.1.2 Colleague requesting special treatment 8.1.3 Signing up for ski CME

	8.2: Conflicts between personal and professional values	8.2.1 Request for Viagra for work 8.2.2 Patient asking for emergency contraception that violates your personal beliefs. 8.2.3 Crash with victim and driver causing accident
	8.3: Cultural competency and "humility"	8.3.1 Muslim woman requiring pelvic exam but family refuses because she is unmarried. 8.3.2 Family requests results shielded from patient 8.3.3 Navajo patient who is dying. 8.3.4 Patient with unclear diagnosis, language barrier.
Module 9: Physician Impairment and Wellness		9.1.1 Keeping awake on night shifts using meds 9.1.2 Consultant smelling of alcohol 9.1.3 Working when ill
Module 10: Issues related to Justice	10.1. Stewardship of Health Care Resources	10.1.1 Patient request for earlier MRI 10.1.2 Patient without insurance, poor access 10.1.3 Sickle Cell patient with frequent admits, causing moral distress.
	10.2. Duties and Responsibilities	10.1.1 Treatment of dehydrated patient with HMO denial. 10.1.2 Robber hit by car: EM bystander obligations
	10.3. Moral Issues in Disaster Medicine	10.3.1 Prioritization in mass chemical exposure 10.3.2 Overcrowding in flu season
Module 11: Relationships with Industry	11-I: Relationships with the Pharmaceutical Industry	11.1 Free dinner and gift from pharmaceutical co.
	11-II. Relationships with third party payers and other industry	11.2.1 HMO denial of infant ED visit for fever
Module 12: Research Ethics	12.1 Research design 12.2 Ethics of Authorship 12.3 Vulnerable Populations 12.4 Subjects' Rights and Informed Consent 12.5 Research funding and conflicts of interest	12.1.1 Prehospital study design 12.2.1 Authorship between student, resident, faculty for research project. 12.3.1 Recruitment with monetary incentives 12.4.1 Consent requirements with new computer program. 12.5.1 Interactions with funding company